Second Subpoena For Dulles Issued

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Orleans Parish district attorney has reissued a subpoena to bring Allen W. Dulles, former head of the Central Intelligence Agency, to testify in the grand jury probe of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

The new subpoena was sent to Dulles in Washington with orders he appear March 28 and 29. The first subpoena was mistakenly sent to New York in the belief that he lived there, Asst. Dist. Atty. James Alcock said yesterday.

A federal court in Washington will rule on the latest subpoena to decide if Dulles must come to New Orleans.
